EDITORIAL: BEYOND THE CROSS ROADS?

The Editor looks at the end of the Free Church Council and the new Free Churches Group in partnership with Churches Together in England

A VIEW FROM THE POOL: Baptists, sacraments and the basis of unity.

Christopher Ellis. This paper was written for the consultation on 'The Sacramental Dimension of Baptism' convened by the Faith and Order Commission of the World Council of Churches in Prague, June 2000.

BELIEVER'S BAPTISM, THE FELLOWSHIP OF BELIEVERS AND FAITH DEVELOPMENT: II

Paul Martin and David Tennant. The first part of this paper appeared in our April issue. This part looks at the case for offering baptism to younger children, and the case for late-adolescence and beyond; the relationship between baptism, being Christian and being church; a catechumenate; baptism - age or stage?; affirming faith in sign and symbol; and being with the children.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH NEAR THE BARBICAN with a list of members 1717, with later transfers and deaths noted to 1743.

E.A. Payne. In 1964 Dr Payne drafted this paper based on a transcription by Miss H.E. Marvell of the Minute Book of the Barbican Church for 1699-1743. Leonard Maguire, Librarian of the General Baptist Assembly, has transcribed this as part of his wider work on the Barbican church and kindly offered our former President's previously unpublished paper to readers of the Baptist Quarterly.

'THIS SAD WORK'

Ruth Gouldbourne. Scandal in Broadmead. Considers how the church in 1679 treated a servant girl and the master by whom she was pregnant, both being church members.
